

Hunter Expressway Aboriginal Scholarship Program

Do you want to help maintain the environment and Aboriginal cultural heritage?

Roads & Maritime Services are offering an exciting opportunity for Aboriginal students, the Hunter Expressway Aboriginal Scholarship Program. Successful applicants will receive up to $15,000 and gain work experience while getting your qualification.

To be eligible you must be:

- Interested in studies that could support or add value to Aboriginal cultural heritage
- Studying at an approved tertiary institution in the Hunter region
- From the Hunter region and be endorsed by a relevant Aboriginal stakeholder group; and
- Studying a relevant qualification which includes the following subjects:
 - Aboriginal Studies
 - Anthropology
 - Environment
 - Geography
 - Marine Science
 - Palaeontology
 - Science

Applications close 28 February 2017.
If you are interested in applying for the Hunter Expressway Aboriginal
Scholarship please email
Aboriginal.Jobs@rms.nsw.gov.au

* Students studying at TAFE will receive up to $10,000 scholarship. Students studying at University will receive up to $15,000 scholarship.

 If your subjects are not listed but you are otherwise eligible for the scholarship please contact the Aboriginal Employment Coordinator who will assess your situation for suitability.